

Patrick Bartley

Patrick Bartley is a GRAMMY-nominated saxophonist, multi-instrumentalist, and bandleader known for his boundless versatility, virtuosic technique, and expressive and beautiful tone. Patrick is a musician with experience in a wide range of situations, from appearing on the Late Show with Stephen Colbert to being featured in the Emmy-nominated HBO special Wynton Marsalis: A YoungArts Masterclass, which premiered at the Museum of Modern Art in New York City. Although a South Florida native, Patrick has spent most of his professional music career in NYC prior to graduating from the Manhattan School of Music. As an on-demand sideman, he has performed and recorded with musicians such as Louis Hayes, Jonathan Batiste, Mulgrew Miller, Jeff Coffin, and Wynton Marsalis, and has performed at world-renowned venues such as The STAPLES Center, Madison Square Garden, and the Black Sea Jazz Festival.

Texins Jazz Band

From 1986–2019 they operated as The Texas Instruments Jazz Band, organized under the Texins Association at Texas Instruments. Members consisted of current, former, and retired TI employees supplemented with subs as needed.

In 2020 the band became an independent 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and changed the name to Texins Jazz Band. The band still gives priority to members with a STEM background. Texins Jazz Band's mission is "to perform the big band jazz musical art form and present international guest artists to the public in a manner that is educational, entertaining, and affordable."

The band has hosted many world-class musicians over the decades including Clark Terry, Phil Woods, John Pizzarelli, Kurt Elling, Wayne Bergeron, Randy Brecker, Delfeayo Marsalis, Veronica Swift, Jazzmeia Horn, Frank Mantooth, Blue Lou Marini, and Tom "Bones" Malone.

Upcoming Eisemann Concerts: John Pizzarelli 5/31/26; Gunhild Carling 10/24/26

Berkner High School Jazz Band

The Berkner Jazz Band is a widely recognized performing group from Richardson ISD. Their mission is to enrich lives through musical performance, community outreach, and educational opportunities. All students are involved in a variety of other fine arts ensembles, including marching band, concert band, string orchestra, choir, and mariachi. Berkner Jazz is one of the premier live performance ensembles for the City of Richardson, performing at annual events such as the COR Santa's Village. Students consistently participate and earn Area spots in the yearly TMEA All-State Jazz audition. Berkner Jazz consistently earns superior ratings in festivals around the DFW Metroplex. For more information about donating to the financial assistance program that supports these musicians' opportunity to participate in Berkner Jazz, email Mr. Austin Townsend at austin.townsend@risd.org.
